Walk to work, museums, galleries, theaters, college, shops & eats.

Nearby restaurants include PieBird around the corner, Tyler's Taproom, 18 Seaboard, Seaboard Café, J. Betski's, Side Street, Sunflower's Café, Peace China. Grab a sandwich and old fashioned vanilla coke at the Person Street Pharmacy. Family friendly Friday night concerts are a neighborhood gathering place on the lawn of the Mordecai Historic House and Park (I) a couple of blocks away. This is a happening place.

Oakwood is an urban village

Call for the names of nearby neighbors who can describe Oakwood activities including the annual Candlelight Tour in December, Easter egg hunt, 4th of July picnic, spring jazz brunch, fall pig-picking, monthly pot-luck suppers, garden club, baby-sitting resources, schools, kids & more.

The value of property in Oakwood is increased by the fact that it is a historic district. Overlapping local and national Oakwood historic districts are shown in the map (below left). Go to RHDC.org for detailed maps and Historic District guidelines and procedures.

The map (below right) shows the proposed path of a north-south expressway that would have destroyed Oakwood. It was permanently defeated in the 1970's. Listen to Oakwood oral histories at www.OakwoodProject.org.
