Features

Eclectic family neighborhood

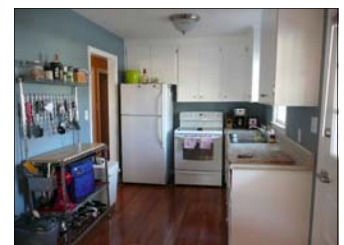

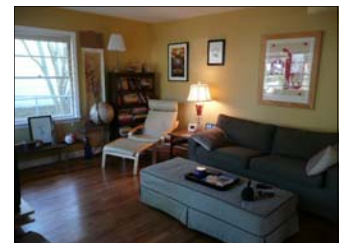

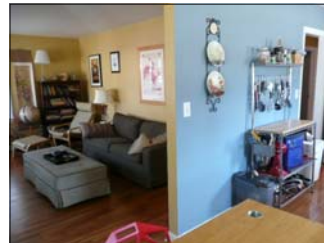

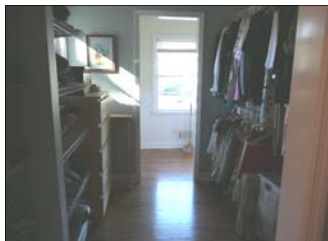

Edmund St is a quiet tree lined street on which many homes have been renovated and new homes built and quickly sold nearby including Bennett place visible through the trees at the end of the street. The large 0.22 acre corner lot offers options for gardening, off-street parking, outbuildings and expansion. The Oakwood (dog) Park two blocks away is a second yard for kids and pets. The many surrounding neighborhoods are part of an extended community through which you can jog, stroll and walk to shops, restaurants and State government offices.

Open flowing floor plan

"Cornered" windows provide lots of light and character, and plenty of wall space to hang pictures. The big living room opens to the dining area and the updated kitchen with additional wall space for adding open shelving, cabinets or your mother's pie safe.

*New bathroom,
walk-thru closet
& daylight laundry room*

The master bedroom catches the morning sun in the southeast corner of the house. It is connected to the new full bath that has "subway" white tile and updated vanity, lighting and fixtures, and the new daylight laundry with a deep sink.
