

The newly reopened Quality Grocery a few blocks away offers a gathering place to eat and buy essential produce and essentials throughout the day. <BR/>

Walking through the nearby Oakwood Cemetery is walking through history. The rolling field just inside the gate is the site of picnics and winter-time sledding.

The Oakwood Common is a play area for toddlers and the site of the annual spring jazz brunch, 4th of July picnic and hot cider during the Candlelight Tour on December. Canines can play at the nearby Oakwood Dog Park.

The Historic Oakwood neighborhood is an eclectic urban village seamlessly surrounded by unique urban neighbors. The value of property in Oakwood is increased by its status as a local Historic District, the first in NC.

Check back for updated picture. Walk downtown or to the Person St and Seaboard Station restaurants, galleries, bike shop, hardware store, pharmacy, bakery/coffee shop, nursery, urban farm, much more. <BR/>

The Governor's Mansion is across Person St from Historic Oakwood.

This is the view, a short walk away, from the new HQ for the state association of architects that overlooks the green roofed state museum & legislative buildings, and the residential & office towers in downtown Raleigh.