

The lower level includes a bar and full bath.

Workshop, studio, storage, whatever - this is one of the two unfinished lower level spaces. The other includes the furnace and additional flexible space.

Walking through the nearby Oakwood Cemetery is walking through history. The rolling field just inside the gate is the site of picnics and winter-time sledding.

The Historic Oakwood neighborhood is an eclectic urban village seamlessly surrounded by unique urban neighbors. The value of property in Oakwood is increased by its status as a local Historic District, the first in NC.

The Oakwood Common is a play area for toddlers and the site of the annual spring jazz brunch, 4th of July picnic and hot cider during the Candlelight Tour in December. Canines can play at the nearby Oakwood Dog Park.

Walk everywhere. The PieBird on N Person Street is one of many new and older restaurants nearby. Check back for a picture of the Quality Grocery and cafe just opened two a few blocks away from 408 Elm St.

A short walk away. This is the view from the new HQ for the state association of architects that overlooks the green roofed state museum & legislative buildings, and the residential & office towers in downtown Raleigh.
