A symphony of light describes the play of sun and shadow through the window-walled rooms, beginning with the glass enclosed portico. Ample proportioned grand rooms and a versatile and practical floor plan invite Thanksgiving feasts, parlor concerts and quiet reflection.

Nestled in the heart of Cameron Park between two neighborhood parks, the home is within easy walking distance to downtown, museums, schools, universities, shopping and entertainment.

Professional photographer, amateur pilot and passionate parachutist are among the past pursuits of the seller, Georgea White, whose grandfather, George H. L. White, the founder of White Dairy in 1911, built the house beginning in 1914.

NC Rehab Tax Credits may be available for updating the kitchen, baths, paint, electrical systems and remodeling projects such as enlarging the kitchen to include the existing unheated, enclosed back porch.
