

TMLS

Stepping further back, this is the north view from the master suite showing the hardwood floors that extend throughout the house.

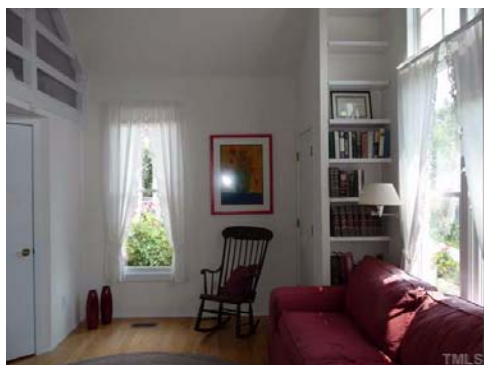

TMLS

Lots of room and light in the master suite that has windows on three sides.

TMLS

The master bath.

TMLS

The second bedroom offers versatile space with a sleeping loft, a desk alcove, a second full bath and room for a bed on the main floor.

TMLS

Columns greet you as enter from the spacious front porch that overlooks the scenic, landscaped cul-de-sac.

A curb cut remains where a parking pad was originally planned but not pursued by the seller. The seller is having plans drawn for a parking option that would require the approval of RHDC, the Raleigh Historic Development Commission.

The Oakwood Common is a play area for toddlers. Canines can play at the nearby Oakwood Dog Park. Oakwood events include spring jazz brunch, 4th of July picnic, Candlelight Tour and monthly pot-luck suppers.

The Historic Oakwood neighborhood is an eclectic urban village seamlessly surrounded by unique urban neighbors pictured below. The value of property in Oakwood is increased by its status as a local Historic District, the first in NC.

Periodic family friendly Friday night concerts are a neighborhood gathering place on the lawn of the Mordecai Historic House and park and at the nearby Seaboard Station.