

The spacious master bath has roll-in, curbless shower, garden tub, dual pedestal sinks and pocket door.

The middle bedroom opens to the large 2nd bath that is also Universal design.

The second bath that opens to the middle bedroom. The house includes a tankless hot water heater.

The home won the Gold Award in the 1993 Parade of Homes, 1993 MAME Award for Best Product Design, and the 1994 National Gold Award from the National Council on Senior's Housing. Descriptive articles and newsletter are available.

The Historic Oakwood neighborhood is an eclectic urban village seamlessly surrounded by unique urban neighbors. The value of property in Oakwood is increased by its status as a local Historic District, the first in NC.

The Oakwood Common is a play area for toddlers and the site of the annual spring jazz brunch, 4th of July picnic and hot cider during the Candlelight Tour in December.

Canines can play at the nearby Oakwood Dog Park a five minute walk away.

Walking through the nearby Oakwood Cemetery is walking through history. The rolling field just inside the gate is the site of picnics and winter-time sledding.

During the warmer months family friendly neighborhood concerts are a gathering place on the lawn of the Mordecai Historic House and park.