

Exterior Front

The bungalow style is timeless while much of the 1920 bungalow is new including the kitchen, a true master suite, 2nd bath, roof, heating & air, deck, all replaced since 2005.

Exterior Back

The kitchen opens onto a 14x12 ft deck overlooking the fenced back yard and wired 10x8 ft workshop & storage shed.

Porch

The eclectic Historic Oakwood neighborhood lives like a small village with monthly pot-luck suppers, an annual candlelight tour, baby sitting groups and much more.

Yard/Garden

Your neighbors over the back fence are part of the vibrant neighborhood on Cooke and nearby streets. Walk back through Raleigh's history in the Oakwood Cemetery one block away.

Living Room

High ceilings and tall windows are a nice match for the handsome mantels that surround the four decorative fireplaces. This is the 15x15 ft living room.

Dining Room

The big dining room with two closets is one of 5 rooms 15x13 ft or larger. Floor plan is available.

Kitchen

A gas range and solid surface counters are part of the large eat-in kitchen.

Kitchen

Just where you want it, a deck and fenced yard outside your kitchen door.

Yard/Garden

The fenced back yard and lush, recently sodded lawn enjoys good sun for a garden and shade for play.

Bedroom

The versatile center hall floor plan includes the front bedroom pictured here that could also be a parlor. The back 3rd bedroom could be an ideal office or studio overlooking the backyard.

Master Suite

This is a true master suite with a new master bath and walk-in closet plus an original bedroom closet.

Master Bath/Spa

The sellers are with 3 children are relocating their medical practices to the home town of one in eastern NC.