A family hideaway - Move in today. Enjoy the big rooms, hardwood floors, fireplace, MBR & bath, fenced backyard with brick patio (over 50 ft long), tree house & small basketball/tetherball pad.

A naturalist's retreat - Native grasses, exotic plants and stone paths are part of the front yard created by a former owner, several times removed, architect Louis Cherry, with design input from landscape architect David Brown. The wooded area in back could become a shade garden.

An architect's dream - Indulge your inner architect exploring options:

- Create a Great Room by removing walls, e.g., between the LR & FR.
- Expand the Kitchen and/or Dining Room into the carport area.
- Enlarge the already big MBR with an addition in front.
- Relocate parking midway along driveway.

The sellers' remodeling plans, developed over the two years they occupied the house as lease-purchase tenants, were recently interrupted by taking a new job in Switzerland.
