

Walk off of Davie Street into Founders Row, and you walk into a different world. It's quiet here. It's secluded. It's private. And it's hard to believe that the hustle and bustle of Raleigh is only a few steps behind you.

This is the kind of lifestyle Founders Row offers you. Quiet, beautifully landscaped surroundings close to the center of Raleigh. A private retreat that you can come home to without fighting rush hour traffic.

Bounded on three sides by streets named after the founding fathers of Raleigh, Founders Row consists of forty-eight flats and townhouses that offer you the ultimate in downtown living.

The three Founders Row buildings that front on Davie Street are elevated off the street on brick foundations that lend them a sense of seclusion, of not being a part of the busy streets around them. Elegant wrought iron gates add to this sense of privacy.

Separating the Founders Row buildings are entry courts which feature fountains, trees and walkways that lead past townhouses with balconies built to take advantage of special views.

In the center of each building is a lush green courtyard, a great place to go to read, to picnic or to enjoy the peaceful surroundings.

And the flats and townhouses at Founders Row are just as impressive as the surroundings. These include two flat plans with two bedrooms, two baths and three townhouse types, all with two bedrooms, two and one half baths and plenty of closet space. Most residences also have spacious balconies, porches or terraces, and all have well-lit parking spaces. In addition, there are private vehicular and pedestrian entrance for residents, with separate entries for guests controlled by each individual homeowner.

Founders Row. If you're the kind of person who likes urban living, you've found yourself a home.
