Features

A star is reborn

Heather and Randall Scott rebuilt* and enlarged this classic 1923 bungalow as their long term family home. Alas, no sooner was the house completed than they answered the siren song of their ultimate dream home - a 1871 Second Empire home on 0.8 acres in the heart of Historic Oakwood, once again needing a complete renovation now underway.

Evoking historic lodges of the West, a large stone fireplace is the centerpiece of the pergola covered outdoor kitchen, dining and gathering space with an adjacent double shed. A Mosquitonix barrier around the fenced back yard sprays organic chrysanthemum oil for mosquito protection.

Indoors is bright, open and practical - very practical - with office, family, living, dining & breakfast rooms. The kitchen is a sparkling diamond with all the quality fixings you would expect plus a beautiful tile back splash & built-in antique china chest. The large island is surrounded on two sides by a chair height surface perfect for informal family eating & kids home working.

The owners suite is regal with two walk-in closets, 5 new energy star windows, octagonal marble tile-floored bath with Air Jet tub & glass-walled large shower. The other two bedrooms share a full bath with an original tile floor. A nearby separate laundry room has novel built-in drying racks.

* New roof, plumbing, electric, dual zone HVAC, insulation, energy star windows, appliances, fixtures, tankless water heater and much more.
