Something old, something new. An antique built-in cupboard and rewired light fixtures blend nicely with the built-in custom panel refrigerator and Bosch appliances.

The large kitchen island is surrounded on two sides by a chair-height surface perfect for informal family eating & kids home working.

The owners suites, part of the addition, is regal. Five new energy star windows, four-over-one, let in the morning light.

Hardwood floors lead to two walk-in closets and the master bath.

This is not your grandparents bath. They would enjoy the Air Jet tub, glass-walled large shower, double marble-topped vanity and handsome octagonal marble tile floor.

The other two bedrooms share a full bath with the original tile floor and refinished claw-foot tub with a shower ring. A nearby separate laundry room has a novel built-in drying racks.

During the warmer months family friendly Friday night concerts are a neighborhood gathering place on the lawn of the Mordecai Historic House and park a few blocks away.

This is one of several nearby parks serving the Mordecai neighborhood. Call for map showing boundaries of historic district and the location of these and other features of the neighborhood.

At nearby Seaboard Station, Tyler's Taproom recently joined ACE Hardware, Marigold Parlor, Phydeaux Pets, Logans nursery, J. Betskis, Seaboard 18 and several other shops and restaurants. More shops and eats are coming nearby backing on Peace St.
