

Grab lunch and vanilla coke at the Person Street Pharmacy that dates back to 1910. The Person street shops include the PieBird restaurant, Marsh Woodwinds jazz venue, Nicoles Gallery, and the new Rapid Fitness Center. More coming in the fall.

At nearby Seaboard Station, Tylers Taproom recently joined ACE Hardware, Phydeaux Pets, Logans nursery, J. Betskis, Seaboard 18 and several other shops and restaurants.

The Burning Coal Theater is across the street from Historic Oakwood in the renovated Murphey School.

Also across street from Historic Oakwood is the NC Governors Mansion.

Gallery C has recently relocated to the Blount Street Commons that includes historic and new homes, commercial spaces and parks on land formerly owned by the State seamlessly adjacent to Historic Oakwood.

The new NC AIA Center for Architecture and Design is located across the street from William Peace University in the Blount Street Commons.

Walk everywhere. This is the view from the NC AIA Center looking south past the state government offices, legislative building, museums and the old Capitol to the private office and residential towers.
