Features

*Big, bright & open - up & down.
Contemporary, Victorian, eclectic decorating styles all compliment this elegantly restored Queen Anne home.*

The picturesque corner on which the house is located is one reason Gregory Peck and Lauren Bacall made a 1990s TV movie in the house diagonally across the street. Major Clark, author of the famous Clark's Regiments series & Chief Justice of the NC Supreme Court, built this house for his mother & sisters.

The kitchen / sunroom / breakfast area conveniently opens to a deck overlooking the west side yard that could become a Georgetown patio/garden or left as is for badminton and croquet. On the east side, ample off-street parking is just steps away from the kitchen and an office / 5th BR with a private full bath.

The LR, DR, FR / library and 4 bedrooms are all over 16x16 ft. The big downstairs bedroom could easily be opened to an adjacent existing full bath. A full bath, a 4th, could be added in unfinished space upstairs providing private access from one of the 3 big upstairs bedrooms.
