

Address: 624 N Boundary St

Built in 2001, this home has a remarkable floor plan 4 (or 5) BR, 3 full baths, LR, DR, family room, upstairs office, lots of storage.

A wall of windows and sparkling hardwood floors are found in living, dining and family rooms.

The corner front porch commands a gentle rise overlooking the Oakwood Cemetery.

Handsome Craftsman style wainscoting. The home is in the Oakwood Historic District.

A patio, compact yard and parking pad (next to the kitchen) offer townhouse convenience.

The family room/den could be a 5th bedroom with convenient access to the 2nd full downstairs bath.

This is a remarkable floor plan. It does not show the large walk-in attic storage area on the 2nd floor.

The dining room ceiling soars.

The 1st floor master bath has both tub, shower and a walk-in closet.

The kitchen has an eat-in area (not shown), a gas range and plenty of light. It is just steps away from the driveway.
