

600 Leonidas Court

MLS#: 1886832
List Price: $335,000

Built for Kay Olson in 1995, this carpenter gothic home is hidden away on a quiet, architecturally eclectic cul-de-sac in the Oakwood Historic District. Landscaped lot includes side lawn, patio and off street parking option.

B A Farrells architectural masterpiece has soaring ceilings in the great room and both bedrooms. Floor plan, neighborhood maps and flyer are available.

The master suite overlooks a private side yard.

The dining area flanks the east facing wall of windows in the great room, just steps away from the galley kitchen.

Finally, there is place a tall wardrobe. Gas logs that have never been used were added to the wood-burning fireplace.

Looking north toward the second bedroom, you see the skylighted sun room with a tile floor near the front door.

This is the north view from the kitchen.

The galley kitchen includes a three person counter.

The kitchen door leads to a patio on the west side of the house.