

TMLS

Feel your stress level decrease as you cross the redwood bridge into your private oasis inside the beltline.

TMLS

Hidden from the street, the mid-century house features a circular drive and double carport with storage.

TMLS

Soaring 11 foot ceilings welcome natural light through floor to ceiling windows.

TMLS

Parquet floors and floor to ceiling windows can be found throughout the home, and are a very striking feature upon entry.

TMLS

Two skylights in the den create interesting light throughout the day.

TMLS

The fireplace is stubbed for gas, but has not connected by the existing owners.

TMLS

The den on the back of the house next to the kitchen features painted birch built-in cabinets, 2 skylights, and access to the patio.

TMLS

Access to the side stone patio through the kitchen makes entertaining and grilling out a breeze.

TMLS

Chefs kitchen features black walnut cabinets, gas range, stainless appliances, and custom vent hood over the island.